“ Just thought I would share a few of my favorite memories, but first I want to just say I miss you already. I have never known life without you really. You were a great uncle and for that I thank you! I have a lot of good memories of you but a couple of my favorites have to do with our flea market trips especially the times that the fruit stand was there and we ate so many peaches I was about sick! I remember your smile as the juice was running off our elbows! Another time in particular was when we both fell asleep in the truck while JoJo was driving and she hit that pothole and we both hit our heads on the roof! Or the giggle you made when we done the burn out going to Mammaws that day! You truly will not be forgotten thanks for all you done for me. Just know I love you and ill see you again. Ill take good care of JoJo don't worry always Brittany

“ Losing Johnny is going to be such a hard adjustment for us all. I'm going to miss his smile and his mischievous laugh when I walk in and how he always waved when I seen him. He was a man of few words but he was sure a character! I know how Jody loved him and how she will miss him and it breaks my heart for her-but don't worry Johnny, I take good care of her til you and her meet again! Fly high my friend and know you were loved so very much!
